Discover "Son Font," a unique estate full of character, nestled on an elevated and peaceful location just outside Porreres, set on approximately 7 hectares of land. This area was already appreciated by ancient civilizations, including the Arabs, for its water abundance and fertile soil—ideal for agriculture and settlement. From this rich heritage, an exceptional property has emerged. The finca beautifully merges historical charm with modern comforts in an environment that has been meticulously maintained. Its Mediterranean-inspired garden, reminiscent of a lush oasis, surrounds the residence with serenity and elegance. Inside, a variety of design styles blend together, with solid wood flooring, doors, and windows giving each room its own distinctive... (Ask for More Details!)
