We would all love this magnificent location, situated in the coveted neighbourhood of Son Espanyolet. This property represents an excellent opportunity to achieve a bright and comfortable Mallorcan lifestyle. If you also wish to take advantage of the property's full urban potential, bear in mind that we can double the current floor space by building on the upper floor. The current house, built in 1950 and in perfect condition, has two bedrooms, one of which has recently been converted into a dressing room, a bathroom with shower, a living-dining room open to the kitchen and a pleasant outdoor terrace. It also has mains gas and new double-glazed windows with aluminium...(Ask for More Details!)
