This charming townhouse is located in the heart of Binissalem, a picturesque village on Mallorca known for its rich wine culture, historic stone architecture, and vibrant local atmosphere. Just a short walk from the lively village square with its excellent restaurants, the property enjoys a quiet side street location while remaining perfectly connected to the heart of the village. Binissalem is approximately 25 minutes from Palma Airport and 30 minutes from Palma city and its beaches, making it ideal for those seeking tranquility without being far from the capital. Part of a former bodega, this townhouse beautifully combines historic charm with modern comfort. While the facade preserves its heritage, the... (Ask for More Details!)
