This lovingly renovated flat is located between the Pere Grau and Foners areas of the city in a building with only two parties. It feels like being in a small house. The flat is reached via an open staircase from which you enter a spacious living-dining area. Furthermore, there is a semi-open kitchen with exit to a terrace of approx. 50 m², a bedroom and two bathrooms, one of them en suite. The sleeping area with lounge area also leads directly to the terrace. In addition to the large terrace on the same level as the living area, there is also an approx. 80 m² roof terrace. The terraces and...(Ask for More Details!)
