In the heart of inland Mallorca, a rare opportunity presents itself for those looking to develop a residential project with potential and flexibility. This is a set of four urban plots with building capacity, accompanied by an adjoining rural plot, ideal as a green space, private garden or landscaped transition area with a total of 1,481 m². The urban plots allow for the construction of two semi-detached houses per plot, or one larger house on each plot, opening the door to different configurations depending on the project's approach. In total, the complex can accommodate up to eight houses. Currently, the property is being offered as a single unit, which facilitates...(Ask for More Details!)
