This apartment was totally refurbished during 2015 and a lot of effort was put into restoring all original details from when it was built in 1890. The property offers today hand painted original ceilings, mosaic tiled floors, beautiful wooden carpentry and French balconies. A state-of-the-art kitchen has been fitted with top quality German-made utilities as well as ample Corian worktops. The location of this apartment could not be better as one finds virtually on its doorstep some of Palma's most popular cafés, restaurants and boutiques. Palma has during recent year's become one of the Mediterranean's most popular cities for weekend breaks thanks to its vibrant cultural, commercial and night...(Ask for More Details!)
