Set amidst the natural beauty of Eastern Mallorca, this exceptional country estate offers a rare combination of architectural refinement, interior design excellence and a privileged location—just minutes from the charming town of Artá, the prestigious Capdepera Golf Course, and the stunning beaches of Cala Ratjada. Situated on a 35,000 m² private plot, the property boasts 561 m² of built space, designed with an eye for timeless elegance and functionality. The architectural project—signed by a well-known local architect—seamlessly blends traditional Mallorcan elements with contemporary lines, creating a home that feels both grounded in heritage and refreshingly modern. Inside, the estate features four spacious en-suite bedrooms, plus a guest toilet. The interior... (Ask for More Details)
