This charming house is located on a quiet side street in the center of Manacor – right in the heart of authentic Mallorcan life. Here you'll find a lively neighborhood of locals while enjoying all the advantages of a central location: restaurants, cafés, and shops are within walking distance. Life in the town is vibrant all year round, with restaurants and bars staying open and creating a unique atmosphere. This fully refurbished townhouse combines traditional Mallorcan character with modern living comfort. Historic features such as exposed wooden beams and Marés stone floors have been lovingly preserved and harmonize beautifully with contemporary details.
