This remarkable property is located on the outskirts of Manacor, surrounded by ancient walls, courtyards, annexes and large green areas. The plot has 26,000 m² and the finca itself has a constructed area of around 600 m². It was built in 1900 and is a refurbishment project with historical value as the entire structure is catalogued. There is the possibility of creating 12 bedrooms and other rooms such as an entrance lounge, the living and dining area with very high ceilings, a generous kitchen with connection to the magnificent patio. The outdoor area is almost completely surrounded by old stone walls, the water well with antique fountain, the huge water...(Ask for More Details!)
