This newly built villa in S'Àr Ràpita is located in a very special enclave in the southeast of the island. The beach of Estrenç is a direct neighbour of this very modern villa with luxury qualities and standards. A modernist interior design, with high ceilings, lots of light and large windows that convert the interior and exterior space into a single space. The German builder has imported many of the raw materials/materials from Germany to achieve very advanced construction standards. Two floors and a utility terrace with pre-installation for electricity and water, a swimming pool and outdoor garden, make this property the perfect place to enjoy our island and its...(Ask for More Details!)
