There are houses you simply live in, and houses you breathe. Located in the exclusive and highly elegant setting of Calle Marqués de la Cenia, just a breath away from Palma's magnificent new Paseo Marítimo—currently the star of a true urban renaissance—this extraordinary sixth-floor apartment is a canvas kissed by the Mediterranean sun. Its impressive 258 square meters open like a stage to natural light, which floods every room, making it alive and vibrant at any time of day. The stately building, equipped with an elevator, houses this urban retreat featuring two separate entrances, including a service entrance: a functional detail of a bygone era, perfect for ensuring maximum privacy....(Ask for More Details!)
