Nestled in the authentic and serene landscape of Algaida, this majestic Mallorcan estate dating back to 1810 stands as a true collector's piece for lovers of history, traditional architecture, and exclusivity. Spanning an expansive 48,800 m² of land that guarantees absolute privacy, the property features an imposing main building of approximately 1,000 m² of built area distributed over two floors. Although currently in a precarious state, the property is catalogued by the Patrimoni (Heritage) commission, ensuring the preservation of its invaluable historical and architectural worth. Its high level of protection allows for all necessary works for its restoration, consolidation, and use, making it ideal either as a spectacular luxury single-family...(Ask for More Details!)
