This exceptional new-build townhouse offers a rare combination of contemporary architecture, premium quality, and some of the most impressive views in Palma. Overlooking a vast green park, the iconic Bellver Castle, and the sparkling Bay of Palma, the property enjoys a truly privileged setting. Designed across four thoughtfully distributed levels, the home provides a smart separation of living, entertaining, and private spaces. The intelligent layout maximizes natural light and opens up breathtaking panoramic views from almost every room and living area, including the pool terrace. The spacious interiors blend elegance with functionality, creating a comfortable and sophisticated living environment. Large windows and carefully planned outdoor spaces establish a seamless connection. (Ask for More Details!)
