This attractive apartment is located in the upper part of Bendinat, one of the most sought-after residential areas in southwest Mallorca, within a well-maintained community featuring a communal swimming pool. The property offers a comfortable layout with four bedrooms, a spacious living and dining area, a fully fitted kitchen, and a practical separate utility room. Its standout feature is the generous terrace, which enjoys spectacular panoramic views stretching all the way to the sea. The apartment also includes two parking spaces and a storage room, providing additional comfort and convenience. An excellent opportunity as a permanent family residence or as a holiday home in a privileged location.
