A superb investment opportunity comprising two attached village houses with stunning views across to the Tramutana mountains. Both dwellings were constructed in 1880 and only one was finished and is now habitable with an ETV vacation rental licence. The second house is a shell and requires finishing thus the houses could be joined or remain separate. The plot of 632 m<sup>2</sup> has a fruit orchard, a level garden area ideal for creating the swimming pool and a large patio area where there is an existing project to create a 3 car parking area. Bunyola is a charming village near the Serra Tramuntana with narrow streets and stone façades...(Ask for More Details!)
