N/A

A charming and traditional village house right in the center of the town of Soller. Built in 1911 for the village doctor in the Art Noveaux style, it has been carefully renovated by the architect owner. An idyllic location on a quiet street only minutes walk from the town square and all the shops you could need. This three, double bedroom property is a comfortable slice of Mallorcan living. It is equipped with air conditioning in all bedrooms, oil central heating throughout, a full bath, a separate drencher shower room, a basement laundry room, a roof terrace as well as a quiet patio off a modern fitted kitchen. All these...(Ask for More Details!)
