Town House in Felanitx

4	3	332m²	209m²	N/A

This exceptional townhouse was built around 1900 and refurbished in 2006 and is located in the historic centre of Felanitx. Originally, it served as a stately residence with its own wine cellar â€“ a piece of history that can still be felt throughout the property today. The historic entrances, through which grapes and wine were once brought into the cellar for processing, have been preserved and give the house a truly distinctive character. In later years, the property was thoughtfully transformed into an art gallery with its own atelier. Even today, every room reflects the creative atmosphere, generous proportions and beautiful natural light that make this house so special. The...(Ask for More Details!)
