This exceptional estate is located just a few minutes from the charming and highly sought-after town of Santanyà, offering breathtaking panoramic views over the surrounding countryside. Set on a plot of over 101.600 m², the property includes several residential buildings and stables. Parts of the estate have already been tastefully renovated, while other areas await transformation to suit your personal vision. At the heart of the estate is a spacious central courtyard, around which several buildings are arranged. Each of these structures features at least one kitchen, as well as multiple bedrooms and bathrooms. For example, the former stables have been converted into four separate residential units, while one...(Ask for More Details!)
