This stylishly refurbished townhouse is located in a prime seafront development, offering a harmonious combination of Mediterranean character and contemporary living. The exclusive community is impeccably maintained and provides spacious communal areas, including sun-drenched terraces, a large swimming pool, a separate children's pool, and a shared underground garage used by only a handful of residents—ensuring a high level of privacy and comfort. Its setting is one of its standout features: right by the coastline, with the upscale marina of Port Adriano. In this area, residents enjoy a wide selection of restaurants, cafés, shops, and a lovely sandy beach. Several golf courses, additional marinas, scenic bays, and lively seaside towns are also nearby.
