In the charming village of Caimari, a magnificent opportunity arises to build an exclusive home in a setting full of tranquility and authenticity. The property is sold with an approved project and a valid building license, allowing construction to begin immediately. It is also available in its current state, without starting the work. The project features an elegant two-story home with four bedrooms, three bathrooms, a spacious living-dining area with an open-plan kitchen, a private garage, and a spectacular rooftop terrace with a pool, offering stunning views of the Serra de Tramuntana. Located just 30 minutes from Palma and a few minutes from Inca, this property perfectly combines the charm...(Ask for More Details!)
