Set in the vibrant heart of Sóller, this 240 m² residence effortlessly combines historic charm with contemporary Mediterranean design. Behind its beautifully restored traditional Mallorcan townhouse façade lies a brand-new home, where original architectural details meet the ease and sophistication of modern smart-living. The property includes three spacious ensuite bedrooms, designed to the highest standards, and boasts uninterrupted views of the majestic Tramuntana Mountains. Outside, a private landscaped garden frames a sleek saltwater swimming pool – an idyllic space for both relaxation and entertaining. The home's meticulously restored exterior, complete with its grand entrance and iconic Parisian-style windows, pays homage to local heritage. However, stepping through the front door reveals...
