43,827m²

Set in a peaceful and serene countryside location, this spacious rustic finca offers the opportunity to create a substantial private residence surrounded by more than 43,000 m² of land, while being conveniently located just a few minutes from Llucmajor. The property includes a house of almost 300 m², currently under construction and already at an intermediate stage. The project provides for generous terraces, and a swimming pool, creating the foundations for a beautiful Mediterranean country home. Importantly, the building licence is almost in place, allowing the construction works to continue immediately after the purchase, in accordance with the approved project. The house enjoys a particularly attractive orientation, with distant views...(Ask for More Details!)
