This exceptional newly built country estate, ready to move in, combines Mediterranean charm with contemporary design, carefully conceived to maximise natural light and its connection with the surrounding landscape. The main residence is entirely arranged on one level and features a spectacular double-height living and dining area with an open-plan kitchen and central island, creating a bright and spacious living environment. The house offers two bedrooms in the main building, including a magnificent principal suite and a comfortable guest bedroom. A third bedroom is located in a separate guest house, providing ideal accommodation for visitors, family members, or additional private space. Designed to enjoy views over the landscaped gardens, the...(Ask for More Details!)
