This impressive villa, currently under construction and nearing completion, offers a perfect combination of modern design and cutting-edge technology. The house is divided into three areas, divided into two functional volumes: one for the living areas and the other for the bedrooms. The main floor, the ground floor, houses a spacious living and dining room with a modern, high-end kitchen. The entire space is surrounded by large windows that let in abundant natural light, creating a warm and energy-efficient atmosphere. Upstairs are the four bedrooms, all equipped with en suite bathrooms, large built-in wardrobes, and direct access to the large terrace. The bathrooms, carefully designed with large-format porcelain tiles and...(Ask for More Details!)
