This unique and spacious house in an attractive, quiet and yet central location of the romantic and original village of Felanitx is a true gem and very rare to find. Originally built in the 18th century, the house was completely renovated in 2017, retaining many historic elements, and rebuilt to the latest and most modern standards. The current owners have completed the current technically perfect condition and indescribable charm of this house over the years without regard to cost or effort. The interplay of history and modernity continues to fascinate in every detail. You can spend enjoyable evenings with friends under the shady roof of the main terrace or even...(Ask for More Details!)
