Contemporary architecture as a Mediterranean sanctuaryImagine a client who is not simply looking for a house, but for a private sanctuary. A home where modern architecture, defined by clean lines and exposed concrete, blends seamlessly with the Mediterranean surroundings, creating a constant sense of balance, light, and serenity. Set on a 1,396 m² plot, this exclusive villa offers 484 m² of built space, distributed across three levels and designed to provide privacy, spaciousness, and absolute comfort. The property features four en-suite bedrooms and five bathrooms, all conceived with a high level of aesthetic and functional refinement. Every material has been carefully selected, from the large-format porcelain flooring measuring 100...(Ask for More Details!)
