This townhouse in Muro for sale stands out for its great potential. It offers 490 m2 of built space on a plot of 532 m2, with a large patio and the option to create a guest flat above the garage, taking advantage of its double access from two different streets. In addition, in the upper part of the house, there are two open spaces that allow more rooms to be added, expanding the options beyond the 3 existing rooms on the lower floor. It is also possible to design an open space with a private lounge and study room. Situated in a serene area of the old town, this property...(Ask for More Details!)
