With this property you have the opportunity to buy a piece of history. A piece of the world cultural heritage of the Tramuntana Mountains. You acquire a mountain. The private forest area covers an area of over 600,000 m² with numerous hiking trails and its own stream with a small waterfall where you can enjoy the cool climate in summer. Coal was once produced in this area. The men came into the forest for several days in the summer, built makeshift huts out of bushes and branches and burned wood for days to turn it into charcoal. Traces of this are still visible today. Later came an order of missionaries....(Ask for More Details!)
