Luxury Living and High-Yield Investment in Albir This exclusive residential resort is located in Playa del Albir, one of the most desirable destinations on the Costa Blanca. Situated just a short walk from the beach and the Sierra Helada Natural Park, this exceptional development combines luxury living, wellness-focused amenities, and outstanding investment potential. Set within more than 30,000 square metres of beautifully landscaped Mediterranean gardens, the project has been designed to offer a unique lifestyle experience. The first phase has already been completed and is fully occupied, while the remaining phases are currently under construction. What makes this development particularly attractive for investors is its integrated tourist rental licence. Owners
