Authentic country estate in the Tramuntana mountains This characterful possessió is idyllically situated in the heart of the Tramuntana mountains, close to the sanctuary of Lluç. The property has a constructed area of 736 m<sup>2</sup> and is a typical "Casal Mallorquès" from the 18th century. It is one of the few remaining properties on the island that has retained its authentic character from the past. The large plot of 808,397 m<sup>2</sup> with various outbuildings has beautiful paths through olive groves, giant oaks, tall pines and cherry trees. This property is waiting for a new owner to take the care to completely renovate it, realising the high potential these properties have...(Ask for More Details!)
