This beautiful estate was completely renovated by its current German owners and completed in 2023. The property is majestically situated with its buildings and tower, which dominates every surrounding corner, on a beautifully landscaped plot of about 28,000 m². It impresses with its high quality and beautiful interior design, which conveys harmony, tranquillity and a very good energy flowing throughout the property, filling every corner with light and colour. Natural colours and textures were chosen for the design and refurbishment, which harmonise perfectly with the surroundings and create an impeccable symbiosis between the interior and exterior. Approximately 455 m² of terraces and another approximately 150 m² of covered terraces, as...(Ask for More
