This charming stone finca in a country-style, within walking distance of the town, impresses with its construction and excellent location. Surrounded by idyllic nature, it offers a stunning view of the town of Algaida and the Tramuntana Mountains. Three connected plots span a total of 15,571 sqm, providing a harmonious combination of privacy and a close connection to nature. The two-story house combines a certain elegance with modern comfort. Four bright double bedrooms and four additional rooms, which can be used as offices, extra bedrooms, dressing rooms, or similar, along with a separate laundry room and storage spaces, create a well-thought-out layout. A small workshop in the basement is...(Ask for More Details!)
