Set to be developed in the peaceful surroundings of Son Serralta, this upcoming residence will feature three spacious bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom, making it an ideal option for both personal use and future investment. The design will thoughtfully combine traditional Mallorcan architecture with contemporary details, creating a bright, modern space filled with natural light and charm. Large windows and open-plan interiors will offer stunning views of the majestic mountains that frame the area. Planned with lifestyle and leisure in mind, the future home will include a generous terrace, a welcoming porch, and a luxurious infinity pool—perfectly positioned to capture the warmth and light of the Mediterranean sun....(Ask for More Details!)
