Located in one of Palma's most popular and trendy areas, this charming new house is situated just a stone's throw north of the heart of Santa Catalina and on a quiet street. The neighbourhood offers many restaurants, cafés and bars as well as fashion and interior design shops. It is located very close to Mercat de Santa Catalina, Palma's oldest food market, packed with stalls selling fresh gourmet products. Due to its central location, the heart of the city of Palma can be reached easily within walking distance. The residence consists of 4 floors with the pool and a terrace on the ground floor. There is also a garage...(Ask for More Details!)
