An exceptional 130 m² residence situated in one of the most exclusive areas of Palma's historic centre. This refined, unfurnished apartment offers a harmonious blend of elegance, comfort, and urban convenience. The interior comprises three generously proportioned bedrooms, three bathrooms, and two sophisticated reception rooms. Located in a discreet building with only three residences, the property ensures privacy and a quiet living environment. Additional features include two private parking spaces within the building, an internal lift providing direct access, and a private terrace, ideal for relaxing or entertaining. High ceilings, architectural character, and abundant natural light further elevate the appeal of this distinctive home. Ideally positioned within walking distance of (Ask for More Details)
