We are pleased to present a selection of these stunning Madrono Villas for sale at Las Colinas, on this amazing golfing oasis. Each of these large open plan villas sits on a beautiful plot, with the choice to have the villa, with front line golf views. Inside you will find an amazing living space, with the most up to date home automation, along with the highest quality, kitchens, bathrooms, and other fixtures and fittings. As you enter the property your eyes lead straight to the stunning views out over the golf course as you come into the large open plan living, dining, and kitchen area. From here you can also see out through to the garden and private swimming pool, via the full width glazed, sliding doors. These really are an superb feature, as they allow you to extend the main living space and bring the outside in, and make for a great entertaining area. Back inside there are 3 large double bedrooms, each complete with fitted wardro...
