LAS COLINAS ARMANI VILLA This is your chance to own a truly spectacular one-off villa located on arguably the best plot available here at Las Colinas Golf & Country Club. The villa is a joint project between the resorts leading developer and renowned designer Monica Armani who is the niece of legendary fashion designer Giorgio Armani. who will be designing the exterior and interior of this stunning villa. Set in one of the highest positions here at Las Colinas, the villa will be positioned to make the most of its south, east orientation, and to take in the 270-degree views over the resort, championship golf course and out to the Mediterranean ocean. With Monica currently in the design process, this is a unique opportunity to work with her to create an unbelievable property. With the plot here at 1800sqm and a build size of over 350sqm, this will be a truly spectacular home. Included within the price is not only the interior and exte...
