Your Move Spain have available from December this south facing 3 bed duplex property in San Cayetano. The property comprises of an open plan living/dinning room leading on to a spacious south facing terrace. There is also a fully equipped kitchen and shower room on this level along with a double bedroom containing two single beds and built in wardrobes. On the second floor is a further rear terrace, a full house bathroom a further double bedroom and the master bedroom leading on to a south facing terrace with views of the surrounding country side and mountains. There is a communal pool however it is undergoing refurbishment and we are unaware as to when this will be completed or if it will be available in the summer months. The property has air conditioning and shutters for security. There is also the possibility to have tv installed for 15 euros per month. Internet can also be installed by prospective tenants. San Cayetano is a small b...
