Los Olivos is a small exclusive and gated complex of new modern Villas set in the heart of Nueva Andalucía. Each villa sits in its own spacious private plot and has been built to the highest standards by one of the regions leading developers. Inside the villas have a modern open concept design with vast expanses of glass and large ceilings allowing the maximum amount of light into the homes and creating a wonderful feeling of space. These doors can also be opened back to allow you to increase the main living and entertaining space to the outside terraces, gardens and swimming pool, making this a great space to enjoy the 300+ days of sunshine on offer each year.
