Imperial Properties proposes you this spectacular manor house with lovely views and a gorgeous 300sqm patio in the heart of "El Terreno" neighbourhood in Palma de Mallorca. Built in 1900, this house has 921sqm build area on a 530sqm plot. Of the 921sqm build the house is 700sqm and the porches of the patio represents 221sqm. The house has been renovated and is in good general condition, all installations are recent (water and electricity). The house is fitted with an elevator (installed 10 years ago) and comes with 2 private parking places nearby. Although renovated, most of the house is actually large empty spaces, easy to convert in what one wants. The only part of the house that needs some renovation are part of the porches in the patio. The house is i and is located just at the foot of a 126 hectare nature reserve public park with the medieval Bellver castle in the centre of it. That park is great for sports/exercise, walking dogs an...
