Fully reformed and extended, this villa with a finca style is located close to the centre of the wonderful Spanish village of Calvia pueblo. Recently significantly extended, this substantial family home was originally a beautiful small cottage set in extensive gardens. The current owners have added a spacious living/dining area as well as large master suite with integrated en suite using contemporary but complementary materials. Added to this a large covered outdoor entertainment area and extended swimming pool offer a unique combination of finca styling combined with modern living and maximum enjoyment of the best of the Mallorquin outdoor life. A large flat lawned area also allows families to make maximum use of the enjoyment of the house. The remainder of the plot consists of areas of native mediterranean planting mixed with gravelled areas. The house has two vehicle entrances from the adjoining quiet residential street both of which...
