This particular property is located in a very large plot in excess of 3.700. The villa has been completely modernised, refurbished and extended to create a fabulous family property. It is difficult to imagine that this was one of the first villas built on La Manga Clubs renowned Championship South Golf Course! No doubt the very reason for this unique plot size. The internal distribution has been altered to provide four large en suite double bedrooms, study and generous living areas. The extensive gardens are home to a wonderful private tennis court, generous swimming pool and childrens play area.
