Kumquat apartments Las Colinas Golf & Country Club. We now have a new release of this beautiful community of Kumquat apartments for sale, located here in the award winning Las Colinas Golf & Country Club. We have a choice of 2 and 3 bedroom apartments for sale and stunning duplex Penthouse properties also. The position of this new community is superb and allows the homes to benefit from the most spectacular views out over the ocean from their elevated plot and position. Kumquat will be a small exclusive community with just 2 blocks of apartments available for sale, with just 12 apartments in each block. Each block has a variety of options for 2 and 3 bedrooms and different levels available. There will be the ground floors with private gardens, 1st and 2nd floor properties with large private terraces, and the 2 level duplex penthouses with solariums. Inside all the homes will feature a bright modern open plan main living space with the h...
