This contemporary villa, forecasted to be completed by late 2024, is situated in the peaceful region of Bendinat, close to the Royal Golf Course. The property sits on a flat parcel of land, providing a secluded garden with a magnificent panorama encompassing the Bendinat Castle, the golf course, and the sea. The property impresses with its reinterpretation of the traditional Mediterranean architectural style: natural stone and wood meet state-of-the-art technology. The living and dining area, open and bright, flows into the generous terrace areas, adjacent to the pool. The property also offers a beautiful Mediterranean garden with absolute privacy, which invites you to enjoy the Mediterranean lifestyle outdoors. The bright new building with 6 bedrooms, all with bathrooms en suite, is not only the perfect family home, but also features many extras, such as elevator, fitness area, sauna and a spacious garage for 5 cars.
