Excellent plot situated in Son Serra de Marina, belonging to the municipality of Santa Margalida, is an area that can be considered as one of the first Mallorcan summer resorts, for those who are looking for tranquillity and proximity to the sea. In the heart of the Mediterranean coast, close to this locality are the villages of Ca'n Picafort, s'Estañol and Colonia de Sant Pere. The plot is buildable according to the current regulations and in a flat topography, totally surrounded by greenery with a diversity of trees and bushes typical of the island. This plot is located only 800 m from the sea, the port and the sports club. Son Serra de Marina is in full bloom and stands out for its new constructions and the already existing classic ones, both built with quality, make this place a special and demanded place. If you wish to fulfil your dream of living in an idyllic area of Mallorca, here you can build a detached house to enjoy by the sea. D...
