Las Brisas is a community which has a variety of Individual Villas and three separate communities of Pueblo style villas. Each of the three communities has its own community pool surrounded by lovely gardens. This particular semi-detached property has three double bedrooms, each with their own en suite bathroom. There is a further guest cloakroom. The living area and open plan kitchen lead on to a private barbeque terrace which has direct access to the communal gardens and large swimming pool. The villa is complemented by a Roof Top Solarium. The property has all day sunshine throughout the year.
