This delightful Los Molinos semi-detached villa is located within easy distance of the community swimming pool. The villa benefits from having no steps from the parking to the property, making luggage and shopping much easier to transport! The property has been well maintained and is very pleasantly presented. The kitchen and both bathrooms have been upgraded and there are new floors throughout complete with all round under floor heating. The barbeque terrace and roof top solarium provide great outdoor space and the addition of a south facing terrace is a bonus! Los Molinos enjoys its own solar heated large swimming pool and the independent restaurant, which is elevated above the pool complex, is popular with owners and visitors.
